Mid and East Antrim Domiciliary Care Agency, is situated within the Stiles estate in Antrim. Services are commissioned by the Northern Health and Social Care Trust. The agency is managed by Emma Mc Laughlin, and a team of twenty one staff provides support to fifty seven service users who are part of a Dispersed Intensive Support Housing Service and supported living for adults who experience mental ill health.

Service users are supported with daily living skills such as homecare, shopping and budgeting.

A person centred approach to service user needs is implemented and each service user has a named key worker. The range of needs met by the agency is stated in the Statement of Purpose reviewed by the agency on the 27 July 2015.

During the inspection the inspector spoke with the registered manager two staff and one service user. Their feedback has been included throughout this report.

At the request of the inspector the manager was asked to distribute ten questionnaires to staff for return to RQIA. Six Questionnaires were returned. The manager was also asked to distribute ten questionnaires to service users. Three questionnaires were returned. Further detail of staff and service user feedback is included throughout this report.

Following discussion with the manager, staff and service user, it was noted there was evidence overtime of positive outcomes for service users. This has been demonstrated by the agency throughout this report.

The inspector would like to thank the service user, agency staff and Praxis Care human resources staff for their warm welcome and full cooperation throughout the inspection process.

4.1 Review of requirements and recommendations from the most recent inspection dated 18 May 2015

The most recent inspection of agency was an unannounced care inspection. The completed QIP was returned and approved by the care inspector.

4.2 Is care safe?

The registered premises are suitable for the purposes of the agency as set out in the Statement of Purpose. The Statement of Purpose was reviewed by the agency in July 2015.

The inspector was advised by the manager that service users are introduced to, and advised of the names of staff that will be providing care and support; this information is also included in the statement of purpose and the service user's guide. This approach was felt to be appropriate and important both in terms of the service users' security and the staff's knowledge of the required care.

Service user referral information received from the HSC Trust care managers contained information regarding the service user and/or their representatives. The inspector examined ten care plans in place during the inspection. The referrals detailed the services being commissioned and relevant risk assessments. The agency care plans and risk screening tools completed contained evidence that service users and/or representative's views had been obtained and incorporated. Risk assessments examined provided clear evidence of safe effective care and support being provided to service users. The agency delivers positive outcomes for people who use their services on an ongoing basis and in some instances over a long period of time. The agency's risk management policy was reviewed by the agency 15 October 2015.

Minutes of tenants' meetings read by the inspector provided clear evidence of safe care being discussed: e.g.

- Health and safety.
- Personal care and support.
- Vulnerable adult policy.
- Service user survey.
- Home safety.
- Respecting others.
- Medication.
- RQIA inspections and role of the organisation.

The agency has in place a written policy and procedure for the recruitment of staff. Employment procedures reviewed evidenced the completion of pre-employment checks. The recruitment policy was updated by the agency on 4 September 2014. The agency has in place a comprehensive checklist for personnel file documents.

A number of staff files were examined by the inspector on the 28 July 2016 and they included the required information in line with the agency's policy and good practice guidelines. The records were satisfactory.

The inspector noted that service users are encouraged to become involved at some stage of the recruitment process through PALS (Praxis Care Advocacy and Learning Support). The group has been actively involved assisting in the design and development of training, as delivered to new employees through the induction process, whilst also reviewing existing training presentations for ongoing improvement. The members, (service users) share their experiences of being a service user with Praxis Care with inductees and support new staff to understand how they can make a difference to service users' lives and improve the service offered. Currently, the PALS group are designing and developing a new presentation to highlight the link between the HSC Trust Principles and their experience of these in life and practice.

The member's group work together to undertake this initiative with the interests of all service users in mind whilst being aware of the need to objectively look at how they can support staff through learning from service user experience.

The agency has a structured comprehensive staff induction programme which includes shadowing by an experienced mentor for all newly appointed staff, as well as induction of staff for short notice/emergency arrangements. The agency's induction standards are in line with the Northern Ireland Social Care Council standards for new workers in social care. The agency's induction procedures were reviewed by the agency in February 2015. Two staff members interviewed during the inspection suggested that the induction prepares all staff for their role.

The person centred part of the induction includes:

- Safeguarding & Protection of Vulnerable Adults & Child protection.
- Service User Awareness.
- Understanding Behaviour which Challenges.
- Values and Attitudes.

- Needs Assessment and Support Planning.
- Person Centred Planning.

Records of staff induction, including short notice procedures and mandatory training, were retained within staff files reviewed. Staff confirmed that they have direct access to all relevant policies and procedures which are held centrally within the agency via the agency's intranet. The agency has a policy and procedure on staff supervision and appraisal reviewed by the agency 5 March 2015. The manager reported that she undertakes supervision with Team Leaders who in turn supervise care staff. The inspector examined staff rotas for weeks ending 11, 18 and 25 September 2016 and the 2 and 10 October 2016 and was satisfied that the agency's staff resources were appropriate to meet service user needs. The agency currently use the services of outside domiciliary care agencies and the records in place including short term induction were satisfactory.

Discussions with the manager, staff and service user indicated that an appropriate number of suitably skilled and experienced staff were available at all times. It was noted that agency's operational plan states an objective of "Agreed minimum safe levels of staffing will be maintained at all times." with an agreed escalation policy if minimum standards are not or cannot be met.

Staff interviewed demonstrated an awareness and knowledge of Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards, Safeguarding of Vulnerable Adults and Whistleblowing. Staff were aware of their obligations in relation to raising concerns about poor practice. The manager stated that all suspected, alleged or actual incidents of abuse are fully and promptly investigated in accordance with procedures.

Where shortcomings in systems may have been highlighted as a result of an investigation, additional identified safeguards are put in place. There was a record of monthly monitoring available on the day of inspection which evidenced working practices being systematically reviewed.

One service user interviewed by the inspector stated that they felt safe and secure and that the care and support they received was of a high standard. The inspector noted that staff make every attempt to increase people's choice and control.

- “I’m happy with the support provided.”
- “I’m doing well.”
- “I’m very happy with the service.”

The agency maintains a daily contact record for each service user. The agency’s individual activity records show what service users did, including how they link activities with the community. Staff interviewed on the day of inspection confirmed that they were provided with details of care planned for each new service user.

The agency’s Statement of Purpose and Service User Guide, makes appropriate references to the nature and range of service provision. Service users and their representatives are advised of independent advocacy services within the Service User Guide.

Staff interviewed provided examples to demonstrate how they promote service user independence, choices and respect. Following engagement with staff it was evident that staff focus on people as individuals with different needs and wishes. The service users interviewed were aware of whom they should contact if any issues arise regarding the service. The most recent monthly quality monitoring reports reviewed, evidenced that working practices are being systematically reviewed.

Staff confirmed that they worked very well as a team and that staff meetings are held on a regular basis. One staff member commented: “We communicate well with each other.”

Care records examined reflected individualised assessments and person centred care plans, including choice and preferences, dignity and respect recorded in a manner which promotes the interests of each service user. It was good to note that service users or their representatives

4.4 Is care compassionate?

The agency's Statement of Purpose and Service Users Guide reflect that staff will ensure that the beliefs and values of each service user are embedded in the day to day operation of the service. The staff described to the inspector that values form an important part of care provision including privacy, dignity, independence, choice, rights and fulfilment.

One service user interviewed by the inspector raised no concerns regarding their care or the quality of care being provided by staff.

The inspector noted the agency's annual quality survey and the positive results in relation to the following:

- Has your life changed since you started to get help from the scheme?
- Do staff help you make your goals happen?

- Are you told about changes?

The agency involves everyone in consultation activities and considers that everyone has the capacity to be involved.

Comments received during the annual survey:

- “Praxis has been a great help to me since my  passed away.”

An action plan in place following the survey highlights some areas of focus for staff relating to outcomes for service users including:

- Person centred focus helping to improve quality for service users;
- Respect and dignity at all times;
- Promote healthy living and self-esteem and confidence;
- Promote and support individual goal.

No concerns were raised regarding the staff treating the service users with dignity or respect. Service users, as far as possible, are offered choices and are encouraged to complete tasks themselves when appropriate. Training records examined including induction records show clear evidence that staff are encouraged to promote independence and choice to service users.

Reports of monthly quality monitoring completed on behalf of the registered person were reviewed. The reports evidenced how the agency ascertains and respond to the views of service users, professionals and staff.

4.5 Is the service well led?

Feedback provided to the inspector indicated that there are effective collaborative working relationships with external stakeholders, including the HSC Trust. This relationship is valued by staff who reported improvements in outcomes for service users.

A number of policies and procedures in place are accessible to staff via the staff intranet. Staff interviewed were aware of the complaints procedure and their role if they receive a complaint. It was noted that the monthly monitoring reports show evidence of complaints auditing and records of action taken in relation to any trend identification.

The agency has a complaints policy and procedure in place April 2016, which is also reflected within the Statement of Purpose and Service User Guide.

Incidents are reported to RQIA when required and it is evident that agency procedures are followed in relation to these. Incidents form part of the monthly monitoring and the agency's operational plan objectives. Required actions are taken to address concerns; this is ongoing within the agency to enable them to reflect on any learning from incidents. The incident reporting policy was reviewed by the agency in November 2015.

A number of staff training events have taken place and mandatory training was up to date for all staff at the time of the inspection. Supervision records examined by the inspector indicated clear evidence of compliance with the agency's own policy and procedures. Feedback provided to the inspector indicated that staff feel respected and supported by the management structure within the agency. Staff reported that they had a very good working relationship with the manager.

There was strong evidence of staff working in partnership with the commissioning HSC Trust. This was confirmed via records, within care plans and through discussions with the manager and staff. There is a whistleblowing policy and procedure and staff interviewed were aware of this. The policy was reviewed by the agency in March 2014.

There was evidence that staff were encouraged to be involved in the development and improvement of the service including measuring the outcomes for service users in relation to their care and support. This was noted within the staff meeting agendas, minutes and the agency's operational plan. The inspector noted some of the topics discussed during team meetings:

- Person centred planning
- Service user involvement
- Rights and protection
- Safeguarding
- Training

The agency has a policy and procedure on staff supervision and appraisal. The manager reported that she undertakes supervision with the assistant manager and team leaders who in turn supervise care staff.

There is a defined organisational and management structure that identifies the lines of accountability, specific roles and details responsibilities of all staff. This is included in the agency's Statement of Purpose.

The agency returned to RQIA a summary of complaints received between 1 January 2015 and 31 March 2016. The agency had received no complaints during this period. The manager demonstrated an awareness of the regulatory framework and understanding of the agency obligations in relation to this.

The agency's system for reviewing policies and procedures was in place and had been actioned. The agency has policies and procedures in place that go beyond statutory requirements to embrace good practice, and that these are followed by staff. The inspector noted a number of key policies that were subject to systematic review.

There was evidence of regular and effective staff supervision, appraisal, and management of performance issues. The arrangements in place to manage incidents and complaints include measures to prevent recurrence of issues. The inspector saw evidence of systematic audit within the agency which results in effective improvement plans with measured outcomes. This included monitoring of training, supervision, complaints and incidents. The audits within the agency are there to improve the quality of service delivery and individual outcomes for service users. The agency aims to make it possible for people to have control over decisions about their life and day-to-day decisions, as well as enabling people to do activities that they find important, enjoyable and meaningful. Following discussions with staff and service users, it was evident that service users are able to play a key role in how the service is managed. The central focus of provision is person centred. The agency reflects on its work using the outcome focus of the operational plan including, action plans and uses this information to challenge its own performance outcomes.

The registered provider has worked effectively with RQIA and maintained their roles and responsibilities in accordance with legislation. The Statement of Purpose and Service User Guide are kept under review, and both have been revised when necessary.
