4.0 Inspection summary

An unannounced inspection took place on 9 October 2019 from 09.40 to 13.20.

This inspection was underpinned by The Health and Personal Social Services (Quality, Improvement and Regulation) (Northern Ireland) Order 2003, The Nursing Homes Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2005 and the Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety (DHSSPS) Care Standards for Nursing Homes, April 2015.

The inspection assessed progress with any areas for improvement identified since the last care and medicines management inspections and to determine if the home was delivering safe, effective and compassionate care and if the service was well led.

Evidence of good practice was found in relation to the management of medicines, the environment and the dining experience.

No areas requiring improvement were identified during this inspection.

Patients described living in the home in positive terms. Patients unable to voice their opinions were seen to be relaxed and comfortable in their surroundings and in their interactions with staff.

Comments received from patients, people who visit them and/or professionals and staff during and after the inspection, are included in the main body of this report.

The findings of this report will provide the home with the necessary information to assist them to fulfil their responsibilities, enhance practice and patients' experience.

4.1 Inspection outcome

	Regulations	Standards
Total number of areas for improvement	0	0

This inspection resulted in no areas for improvement being identified. Findings of the inspection were discussed with Mrs Geraldine Browne, Registered Manager, as part of the inspection process and can be found in the main body of the report.

Enforcement action did not result from the findings of this inspection.

4.2 Action/enforcement taken following the most recent inspection

No further actions were required to be taken following the most recent care inspection on 10 June 2019.

5.0 How we inspect

To prepare for this inspection we reviewed information held by RQIA about this home. This included the last inspection findings in relation to care and medicines management and any other written or verbal information received.

During our inspection we:

- where possible, speak with patients, people who visit them and visiting healthcare professionals about their experience of the home
- talk with staff and management about how they plan, deliver and monitor the care and support provided in the home
- observe practice and daily life
- review documents to confirm that appropriate records are kept

During the inspection we met with three patients, one patient's representative, the registered manager, the deputy manager and nine members of care staff.

Questionnaires and 'Have We Missed You?' cards were provided to give patients and those who visit them the opportunity to contact us after the inspection with views of the home. A poster was provided for staff detailing how they could complete an electronic questionnaire.

A poster indicating that an inspection was taking place was displayed at the entrance to the home.

During the inspection a sample of records was examined, which included eight patients' personal medication and medicine administration records.

The findings of the inspection were provided to the person in charge at the conclusion of the inspection.

6.0 The inspection

6.1 Review of areas for improvement from the most recent care and medicines management inspections

There were no areas for improvement identified as a result of the most recent care and medicines management inspections dated 10 June 2019 and 9 May 2017.

6.2 Inspection findings

6.3 Is care safe?

Avoiding and preventing harm to patients and clients from the care, treatment and support that is intended to help them.

We arrived in the home at 09.40 hours and were greeted by the registered manager and staff who were helpful and attentive. Patients were mainly seated in the lounges whilst others remained in bed, in keeping with their personal preference or their assessed needs.

Observation of the delivery of care evidenced that staff attended to patients needs in a timely and caring manner.

The home was observed to be clean and warm, all areas inspected were appropriately decorated and clean. There were no malodours. Corridors were free from trip hazards and cleaning products were stored in areas not accessed by patients.

A sample of eight personal medication records and medicine administration records were reviewed. These had been maintained in a satisfactory manner. A range of audits on the administration of medicines was completed. There was evidence that medicines were being administered as prescribed.

Areas of good practice

There were examples of good practice found throughout the inspection in relation to the home's environment, staffing and the management of medicines.

Areas for improvement

No areas for improvement were identified during the inspection.

Total number of areas for improvement	0	0

6.4 Is care effective?

The right care, at the right time in the right place with the best outcome.

There were procedures in place to ensure the safe management of medicines during a patient's admission to the home and for medicine changes. Systems were in place to manage the ordering of prescribed medicines to ensure adequate supplies were available and to prevent wastage. Newly prescribed medicines, including antibiotics, had been received into the home without delay.

Staff stated that there was effective teamwork; each staff member spoken to knew their role, function and responsibilities. All grades of staff consulted demonstrated the ability to communicate effectively with their colleagues.

We reviewed the lunchtime meal experience in both the general unit and the dementia unit. Lunch commenced at 12.20 hours. Patients dined at the main dining area or at their preferred dining area such as their bedroom or the lounges. Tables had been laid appropriately for the meal. The menu offered a choice of meal for lunch. Patients who required to have their meals modified were also afforded choice of meal. Food was served from a heated trolley when patients were ready to eat their meals or be assisted with their meals. The food served appeared nutritious and appetising. Staff were knowledgeable in relation to patients' dietary requirements. Patients wore clothing protectors where required and staff wore aprons when serving or assisting with meals. Staff were observed chatting with patients when assisting with meals and patients were assisted in an unhurried manner. Patients consulted spoke positively of the food provision. Records of food and fluid intake were maintained.

Areas of good practice

There were examples of good practice found throughout the inspection in relation to the timely availability of newly prescribed medicines and antibiotics, communication between patients and staff and the encouragement/assistance provided by staff to ensure that patients enjoyed a nutritious meal.

Areas for improvement

No areas for improvement were identified during the inspection.

6.5 Is care compassionate?

Patients and clients are treated with dignity and respect and should be fully involved in decisions affecting their treatment, care and support.

Staff demonstrated a detailed knowledge of patients' wishes, preferences and assessed needs and how to provide comfort if required. Staff interactions with patients were observed to be compassionate, caring and timely. Patients were afforded choice, privacy, dignity and respect.

Consultation with three patients confirmed that living in Silverdale was a positive experience. Comments included:

- "It's great living here. Staff are very attentive."
- "I am happy here. I am looked after very well."
- "There is a good variety of food and it is very tasty."
- "I enjoy living here; this is a good home."

One visitor stated that their relative was very happy, was "getting great care" and that management and staff were very welcoming. They also stated that the food was great.

None off the questionnaires that were issued, for patients and relatives to complete were returned within the allocated time provided.

Patients who could not verbalise their feelings in respect of their care were observed to be relaxed and comfortable in their surroundings and in their interactions with staff/others.

Areas of good practice

There were examples of good practice found throughout the inspection in relation to the culture and ethos of the home, dignity and privacy, listening to and valuing patients and their representatives and taking account of the views of patients.

Areas for improvement

No areas for improvement were identified during the inspection.

6.6 Is the service well led?

Effective leadership, management and governance which creates a culture focused on the needs and experience of service users in order to deliver safe, effective and compassionate care.

Discussion with staff confirmed that management were supportive and responsive to any suggestions or concerns raised. Staff confirmed that, if they had any concerns, they could raise these with the manager or the nurse in charge. All staff spoken to stated that they enjoyed working in the home. Comments included:

- “I love it here.”
- “There is a very good and supportive staff team.”
- “Management are very approachable and supportive.”
- “I am happy with the variety of training opportunities. Each year at annual appraisal I have the opportunity to discuss and agree my training needs with management.”
- “Good teamwork; good management; everything good.”
- “Everyone works well together.”
- “I had a great induction, everything was explained well.”
- “I absolutely love it; it is a great place to work.”

We also sought staff opinion on staffing via the online survey. There were no responses received within the allocated time provided.

There were robust arrangements in place for the management of medicine incidents. Staff confirmed that they knew how to identify and report incidents. Medicines related incidents reported since the last medicines management inspections were discussed. There was evidence of the action taken and learning implemented following incidents. In relation to the regional safeguarding procedures, staff confirmed that they were aware that incidents may need to be reported to the safeguarding team.

Areas of good practice

There were examples of good practice found in relation to quality improvement and maintaining good working relationships.

Areas for improvement

No areas for improvement were identified during the inspection.
