Who is RQIA?

RQIA is the group of people in Northern Ireland that visit wards in hospitals, homes and other services to check that they are good and make sure that they are safe for everyone. RQIA call these visits inspections. The RQIA also talk to patients, these are called Patient Experience Interviews. The people from RQIA that visit the wards and talk to patients are called inspectors.

The inspector that spoke to the patients on the ATU unit was called Audrey.

What did Audrey do?

What did Audrey do?

Audrey

- looked around the ward
- talked with patients on the ward
- talked to the people that are in charge of the ATU unit

After Audrey finished speaking to the patients, she told the people in charge of the ward what patients said.

The patients said it was good that

They knew why they were in hospital and understood the rules of the ward

They were involved in their care and treatment and felt staff listened to them

They could see an advocate

They got time of the ward and could access the grounds of the hospital site

They felt safe on the ward

They knew who to speak to if something was wrong

The care on the ward was very good

The patients said they were concerned that

There was not enough gym equipment on the ward

What next?

What next?

After the Patient Experience Interviews

Audrey wrote a report about what the patients said and sent it to the ward. RQIA asked the people that are in charge of the ward to make some changes.

The people in charge of the ward will write back to Audrey and tell her how they are going to fix the problems on the ward and make it a better place for patients.

One of the inspectors will visit the ward again to see if the ward has improved.
