Statement from Olive Macleod, RQIA Chief Executive

Update on Ashbrooke Care Home, Old Tempo Road, Enniskillen

“As a result of systemic care failings and concerns in relation to the management of the home at Ashbrooke Care Home, Enniskillen, in late August, RQIA moved to cancel the registration of Runwood Homes Ltd. in respect of this service.

The ongoing safety and wellbeing of everyone who was living at Ashbrooke continues to be of paramount importance to RQIA. The Western HSC Trust has now made arrangements to place the majority of patients in alternative accommodation in the Fermanagh area.

In order to facilitate the managed placement of the remaining residents at Ashbrooke, today, RQIA has registered the Western Trust to manage a small number of residential care places at this home, for an interim period. This registration will cease and the home will close when the remaining residents are placed in alternative accommodation.”
