

A REVIEW OF THE PATHWAYS ASSOCIATED WITH THE TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF EMERGENCY GENERAL SURGERY AT SOUTH WEST ACUTE HOSPITAL (SWAH)

STAFF ENGAGEMENT

RQIA are undertaking a Review of the pathways associated with the temporary suspension of Emergency General Surgery at South West Acute Hospital. As part of this work we are engaging with staff in the Western Health and Social Care area to seek their views and experiences of these pathways.

Any member of Health and Trust care staff can contact RQIA about their views or experience of these pathways, including staff working in:

- South West Acute Hospital
- Altnagelvin Area Hospital
- Northern Ireland Ambulance Service
- Local General Practitioners

Please be assured that when we report our findings, information that staff share with us will not be assigned to a particular individual, and that experiences can be shared anonymously.

Health and care staff can contact RQIA by:

- Email: Reviews@RQIA.org.uk
- Using the QR code on this poster
- Phone: 028 9536 1990 (Mon – Fri between 10am – 4pm) and a member of the team will call you back.
